and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

A unique program -- one designated to make money for the State, rather than spend it--has been submitted to the Texas Legislature.

It is the budget request from the Texas Development Board asking $300,000 a year for the next biennium for tourist advertising, to be handled by the State's officially designated tourist agency, the Texas Highway Department.

Action is needed to protect and expand the Texas tourist market, for it is a significant source of income: tourist now pay $17 million in direct State taxes annually. At a time when Texas is facing aggravating tax problems, it makes good sense to take advantage of a source of tax revenue with almost unlimited potential.

Tourism is recognized nationally as a legitimate cornerstone of community development. The U. S. Department of Commerce states that a town which can attract two dozen tourists a day has a source of income equivalent to an industry with a $100,000 annual payroll. The tourists dollar is new income, earned elsewhere but spent in Texas, for the eventual benefit of all Texans.

But while the National Tourists market is in the midst of an unprecedented boom, the Texas market is in a spiraling decline due to hot competition from other states. Texas is 20 years behind the times in advertising its bountiful attractions.

The Lone Star State lost a million out-of-state visitors last year, according to the 1960 Texas Tourist Industry Report released today by the Texas Highway Department.

The total number of tourists Texas last year dwindled to 8.6 million, as compared with 9.6 million in 1959. Tourists spent a total of $457 million in Texas during 1960, a figure well below the State's peak tourist year, 1957.

When Texas enters this field, the experience of other States indicates it will reap a handsome profit. Our neighbor New Mexico gets $34 in State taxes for each dollar spent for tourist advertising; Arkansas gets $40 in taxes for each advertising dollar. Some other States report even larger dividends. Tourists generally buy those items which carry the stiffest state taxes. Tourist advertising doesn't cost--it pays.

It is not a giveaway; it will bring in new tax revenue, put people to work, stimulate business, and channel millions of new dollars into our State's economy. With the State Treasury not only broke but millions in the red, why not officially invite tourists to come to Texas? They'll enjoy their visit and at the same time help ease our tax burden. Tourist advertising is a sound investment for the State of Texas.

Tips to Discourage Burglaries Given By Chief as Part of Special 'Week'

Chief J. L. McCurdy said today that April 30th through May 6th will be observed as Burglary Prevention Week in Hamlin (as proclaimed by Mayor John V. Howard Jr.) These dates are in conjunction with the official state-wide program set by Governor Price Daniel and The Texas Police Association.

This is not "just another week", the Chief said, but has been set aside for a concentrated effort to remind homeowners of the simple precautions they should take this summer when they leave their homes for an evening or go off on a vacation trip.

From January to September of last year, there were several burglaries in our city. Unfortunately, many of these were the result of carelessness and probably could have been prevented. At this time of year, people frequently go out evenings, weekends or on vacation trips and fail to take simple precautions to protect their homes and property. "It won't happen to me", "I have nothing to take, why would anyone break into my home" is all too often the comment of many. Unfortunately, the burglar doesn't think in those terms and when he's prowling around, if your home looks like an easy mark... in he'll go.

Something can and must be done to curb this menace. Statistics show homes account for four of every ten burglaries. People can help by taking a few simple steps to discourage burglars. Chief McCurdy pointed out several precautionary steps to take that involve virtually no expenditure and could mean coming home to everything as you left it.

Leave two or three lights "on" in the house during evening hours. Timers that automatically turn lamps on and off every day, are available and are especially useful when a family is away on vacation. Lights going on and off every evening create a "lived-in" appearance in the home and tend to confuse and discourage a would-be burglar.

Put good locks on all outside doors. It is not uncommon to find substantial jimmy-proof locks on the front and back doors, but with the cheapest possible lock holding an outside porch door. French doors, too, are usually secured with only the flimsiest sort of device. It is a good idea to look over all doors in your house and see just how secure they are.

Windows are usually a weak point in most homes, too. Screens and storm windows should be hooked on the inside to prevent them from being lifted off their frame. Safety latches which permit windows to open only part of the way, sufficient for ventilation, are also a good idea. Since some burglars are expert climbers, be sure to use them on second floor windows.

Stop all deliveries when leaving for a vacation. It is better to call the dairy than leave a note for the milkman, burglars can read, too. Have your newspaper forwarded to your vacation spot and you'll be able to keep up on all the local news. Talk to your local post office about holding your mail and ask a neighbor to pick up circulars or handbills that might be left on your porch while you are gone.

People must take some of the responsibility for preventing burglary themselves. By following these simple steps, the responsibility of a crime is lessened. Apprehending the criminal is the job of your police department. But, Chief McCurdy went on, the war against burglary can only effectively be carried out with the home-owners' full cooperation. Please do your part.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, TEX.—House members astonished many observers by giving, for the first time in recent memory, a favorable vote to a general sales tax.

A 2 per cent retail sales tax by Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity was approved 75-to-65, on second reading and 76-to-62 on final passage. It is now in the hands of the Senate.

Food, feed, farm machinery, seed, fertilizer, medicine and medical needs are exempt from the bill. Its tax yield is variously estimated from $127,000,000 to $140,000,000 a year.

Before the bill was given preliminary passage, Wilson stavied off efforts of sales tax opponents to put on amendments to make the bill include a corporation income tax, graduated oil revenue tax.

Governor Daniel announced his opposition to the Wilson bill before it came up on the House floor. After the House vote, the governor refused to say whether he would veto the measure if it should be finally passed by both Houses.

NEW TEACHER PAY APPROACH — A teacher pay raise plan designed to offer more incentive for heads of families and career teachers has been proposed by Rep. Jack Woods of Waco.

Woods' bill would provide a lower raise in the basic minimum than is recommended by the Texas State Teachers Association, but it would offer higher increments (increases for experience) than TSTA asks.

Woods' bill would provide an across-the-board raise of only $234 a year compared to TSTA's $810. But under the Woods bill, a teacher with 10 years' experience would make $4,950 a year compared to $4,554 under the TSTA schedule. Woods' bill would also make special provision for teachers, either men or women, responsible for the support of a household.

UH BILL STIRS FUSS — A bill to make the University of Houston part of the state-supported college system easily won its first vote on the floor of the House.

But in the Senate determined opponents filibustered to prevent the bill's coming to a vote.

House vote was 84-to-34 for the bill.

In the Senate, Sen. Wardlaw Lane of Center spearheaded the opposition with extended remarks. He protested the state could not take on another -10,000,000 a year for the University of Houston when the state treasury already had a deficit.

Lane was assisted by Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville who declared the state should improve the quality of existing state colleges before taking on any more. To help fill up time, Hudson read receipts from a French cookbook.

BREWERY BILL VOTED— Senate finally passed a bill that would make it easier for the Carling Brewery to build a new $20,000,000 plant in Tarrant County.

Highly controversial, the bill has brought a pitched battle between "wet" and "dry" forces. All Tarrant County House members voted for the bill, but Fort Worth's Senator, Doyle Willis, led the opposition.

Willis had little active help in the Senate, but after the bill was approved on second reading by voice vote, 14 of the 29 senators present asked to be recorded in the Senate Journal as voting "no." Final approval was by a slim 13-to-11 margin.

Bill would allow the brewery to continue to operate even if the area in which it is located should vote dry.

FREIGHT RATE BILL TUMBLES — In an about face, The House turned down on third reading the freight rate bill it had approved on second reading.

Proposal would have allowed uncontested changes in freight rates to go into effect without hearing and approval of the Railroad Commission.

It passed by a narrow margin on second reading but was voted down, 71-to-65, on the vote for final passage. In general, railroads favored the bill, and truckers did not.

RACING MEASURE STILL BREATHING — Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry's last-ditch effort to get the horse racing issue before the people survived opponents' efforts to kill it.

Berry's proposal for a constitutional amendment to legalize horse racing and parimutuel betting lost out earlier in the session. He is now trying for a referendum to let the people express their opinion on racing at the next general election.

Rep. Bill Healy of Pducah moved the proposal be sent back to committee where, it was assumed, it would die. Healy's motion for interment lost, 68-to-58.

SENATORS FLAY LOAN BILL — Finding a generally acceptable plan for regulating small loan companies is proving fully as troublesome as many predicted.

Several senators were sharply critical of the House-passed loan regulation bill when it came up for hearing before the State Affairs Committee.

Proposed measure provides for interest rates ranging from nearly 40 per cent for the smallest loans down to 11 per cent for loans of $3,000 or more. Banks, building and loan associations and credit unions would not be under the law.

Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville accused the State-wide Committee to Eliminate the Loan Shark Evil headed by Abner McCall, president of Baylor University, of having misled the public. Sen. Charles Herring of Austin predicted that legalizing 40 per cent interest would cause the people to 'come down here and scalp us.'

TWO CHANGES NIXED— Two proposed changes for the handling of criminal cases were voted down by the House.

One, sponsored by Rep. O. H. Schram of Taylor and James E. Barlow of San Antonio, would have allowed jurors in non-capital criminal cases to go home overnight. More people would be willing to serve on juries, said the authors, if they didn't have to be locked up during the trial. Opponents successfully argued that jurors turned loose overnight might be exposed to influences that would prejudice their decision.

Other proposals, also by Barlow, would allow defendants to by-pass indictments by pleading guilty. It would save offenders' having to sit in jail awaiting indictment when they're planning to plead guilty anyway, said Barlow. Opponents protested tinkering with "due process of law," said it might encourage guilty pleas by persons who have good defense.

AUTOMATIC REDISTRICTING — A proposed constitutional amendment to provide for automatic congressional redistricting passed the House, 106-to-39.

Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth is sponsor of the measure which would have to be approved by the people before becoming effective.

In this decade, it would not take effect until 1963. If, however, the legislature failed to reapportion congressional representation in the session that year, the job would be taken over by a redistricting board. Making up the board would be the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, attorney general and land commissioner.

A similar measure was passed in the 1950's for legislative redistricting.

OIL ALLOWABLE DWINDLES — Texas oil production for May will fall back to the all-time low of eight producing days.

Texas Railroad Commission fixed the production pattern which will cut back the daily allowable to 2,636,562 barrels. This is a drop of 233,794 barrels a day from April when nine producing days were ordered.

BLUE LAWS STUDIED — Revision of Texas' blue laws, on the books but ignored for nearly a century, is being studied by the House Committee on Municipal and Private Corporations.

Most cities make no effort to enforce the laws providing fines for both employees and owners of businesses staying open on Sunday. A bill before the committee would allow cities of 800,000 and over to set up their own Sunday business practice. Houston Mayor Louis Cutrer suggested it should be applied to all cities.

Most witnesses said they generally favored blue laws. Sunday business, they said, interfered with family and community life.

TAX HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL — Texas' severance beneficiary tax on natural gas has apparently come to the end of the line.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said he felt further court appeals would be useless. A district court of civil appeals and the Texas Supreme Court have all held the tax to be an unconstitutional levy on interstate commerce.

STATE SUPPORT ASKED — Despite the static over University of Houston efforts, another school, San Angelo Junior College, is bidding for admission to the state-supported college system.

SAJC also would like to be raised from a junior to a four-year, senior college. Supporters say one is badly needed in the area.

SHORT SNORTS — A special committee of State Hospital Board officials reported to the Legislative Budget Board that 1,007 retarded children are awaiting admission to a state school. Report was made at the Budget Board's request. House passed, 133-to-5, a bill by Rep. John Allen of Longview to allow persons falsely imprisoned to sue the state for damages. Limit would be $25,000.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER SAYS SPACE TRAVEL, LIKE RIDING ON A BICYCLE, MAY LOSE ITS NOVELTY

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 calms his concern about the Russian space flight, in his letter this week.

I was out here on this Johnson grass farm the other afternoon looking up at the sky and a neighbor stopped and asked: "What're you doing, looking for a Russian traveling through space?"

I told him nope, just looking for clouds. Everybody I know has been excited, and a little concerned, about the Russians' getting the first man into space, and it is an achievement, but I have a notion that the Russians, who threw their hats in the air when they heard they were first in space, spent the next few minutes looking for them on the ground, as hats spring from the products of the earth, not from space.

You will notice that man, when he goes into space, has to carry his own earth-produced oxygen with him, whereas I've already got all the oxygen I need completely free any place I want to go on this farm.

My point is, outer space may be interesting to look at the first trip or two out, but it could get mighty boring in the long run.

And as for our being behind the Russians in space, it's true, but I'll tell you, I believe we can catch up and I believe we will. In the final analysis, a new scientific feat is impossible to get a monopoly on. You can't keep a secret very long. Everybody's got laboratories these days. It's sort of like the secret of the bicycle. One country at one time no doubt had the bicycle first, but once the idea was discovered, bicycles turned up all over.

The United States sooner or later will be sending men through space too, and this generation won't be over until we start having traffic collisions up there too, but I have a notion the novelty will wear off and traveling through space may wind up like a man I know who saved up his money and traveled around the world. He said the trip was interesting, but the best sight he saw was the look of home when he got back. And you've got to remember this man was on the earth's surface, not going around it 150 miles up where you don't meet any new people and your main past time is wondering if there's leak in your oxygen hose.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Western star Roy Rogers spreads the good word for your local dealer! "Right now he's making it easier than ever to own America's easiest riding truck. That's Chevy — the truck that saves you plenty with its special brand of Independent Front Suspension."

Just pick the model that fits your job and you can be sure you're putting your truck dollars where they'll do the most good. And savings that just naturally go along with Chevrolet's I.F.S. ride.

Chevy's hefty Jobmaster 6, standard in Series 60 middleweights, is known far and wide for its fuel-saving performance.

CHEVROLET LES TRUCKS

Chevy's famous Thriftmaster 6 does the saving in this Fleetside model. It's the most highly respected truck 6 ever put under a hood. It's best known for economy and dependability—for pulling more loads over the years than any other truck engine. The 135-horsepower 235-cu.-in. Thriftmaster's standard in all Chevy pickups.

We only have thirty-eight days left of this regular session of the Legislature, and today we consider two tax bills. One is a sales tax and one is an invoice tax. If either of these passes, which is doubtful, it will probably mean we can get through with this session. If they fail to pass, it will possibly take one or more special sessions to get through.

We had several people in our District contact us in regard to our vote for H. B. 156. We voted against it on the second reading. We felt at that time that H. B. 156 would have put the small shipper under regulations that he could not stand; therefore forcing him out of business, and we still felt that way on final passage; however, we were on the telephone when they took the final vote and did not get to have our vote registered at that time. The Conservation and Reclamation Committee has heard a bill by Mr. Wheatley to allow cities to withdraw from the water district. This is a very controversial bill in Haskell and by being a local bill, other Representatives do not interfere with local Representatives and their problems. This bill is in subcommittee, and we do not know what their action will be.

It is pretty hard for a man to vote to raise $150 million taxes a year without seeing the Appropriation Committee Chairman, on the instructions of the Speaker of the House, has deliberately held up the Appropriation Bill. This means that we have to vote on something without knowing what the effect will be if it passes.

It is hoped that we can arrive at some solution to the problem, raise the necessary money, cut enough expenses, all to balance the State budget and finish the work of the Legislature in the regular session.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Gill spent part of the weekend in the Big Spring area to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gill's grandfather.

LATERAL OILING WILL CUT COSTS--COTTON SPECIALIST

College Station. — Like to save up to $25 an acre on labor costs on this year's cotton crop?

Lateral oiling for grass and weed control is the answer, says Glenn Black, extension cotton specialist. He points out that a once-over application of naphtha costs only a dollar to a dollar and a half an acre for material compared with more expensive hand hoeing.

Black recommends spraying seedling grass and tender weeds in young cotton with 5 gallons of naphtha an acre. The first application can be made when the cotton is 7-10 days old. Be careful, he adds, and apply the spray below the leaves of the cotton plant. Cotton plants have enough growth and natural wax on the stalks at this stage to shed the naphtha without injury while the grass and weeds are killed.

Other applications at 7-10 day intervals, may be used if needed. Stop oiling he warns, when the cotton is 5-6 weeks old or when bark begins to form on the stalks or damage to the cotton may occur.

This practice, Black says, was used on over 71,000 acres where the cotton was rolled in 75 Texas counties last year at planting time or rotary hoed later to prepare a smooth surface for the operation.

Parallel action oiling shoes for a 2-row set-up are available and can be connected to a low volume insect spray rig.

Other topics presented were Police and the Public and Police Legislation.

Mr. McCurdy stated that he felt he received some valuable information from the session.

A mile of good fence costs about $500, and a major item in this investment is the posts. For this reason, advises Bill Smith, extension forecaster, posts need to be selected with care.

PIPER PATTER

by Montie Wade

Nancy Carter, Hamlin High School junior, was awarded the second place medal in the girls regional poetry division at the Interscholastic League Meet in Lubbock Saturday. Nancy was chosen second from eight readers for her reading of "The Creation!" Only the first place get to go to the state meet but second place is a very outstanding accomplishment.

Monday the students of Hamlin High were privileged to hear the Roby High School band under the direction of Hap Myers. The band had played a concert in Aspermont and visited HHS on their way home. After eating lunch with us in our cafeteria, the band presented a forty-five minute concert.

Saturday is the big day for the members of the HHS Pied Pipers Band. It is then that the band will go to McMurry in Abilene to the annual Interscholastic League Band Concert and sightreading contest. The band will leave Hamlin at 10:00 a.m. Saturday and they will play at 12:30. After playing, the band plans to eat lunch at the Chicken Shack and then return to the McMurry campus to wait the ratings which will be given about 4:00 p.m. The band has a first in marching and inspection already, and a first in concert and sightreading would give us a sweepstake band. We are all anxious to win this.

In order to be ready for the contest the band has been having extra section rehearsals this week. They will have an all-band rehearsal Thursday afternoon.

It's not too early to start thinking about buying your tickets to the second annual Parade of Music to be presented by the Hamlin Bands, May 8 at 7:30 p.m. and prices are only 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for students.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Sixty members of the eighth grade class made the annual trip to visit places of interest in Abilene Monday. The group was accompanied by three home room teachers, A. P. Williams, Coach Leslie Fambrough and Mrs. Joe Lewis and the junior high principal, Marvin Carlton.

The first stop was at the Borden Milk Plant on Pioneer Drive where the pupils saw the processing of milk and were told of the precautions taken to assure the purity of milk sold to the consumers. Next stop was the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company. Here the group viewed with interest the speed at which a bottling concern operates.

An hour was spent at Fair Park where they visited the zoo and entertained "Charlie" the chimp and flocked on the swings, slides and other play ground equipment.

Following lunch they visited Mrs. Baird's Bakery and were impressed with the amount of mechanization employed. Last stop was Dyess Air Force where they spent two hours inspecting a C-130, a B-47, the Base Library and the Base Chapel.

Junior High School students will visit the Hamlin plant of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company this morning.

Spring picnics for the Junior High School will be held Tuesday afternoon from 12:30 until 3:30 p.m.

Achievement tests begin in Junior High School and will be completed Thursday afternoon. Stanford Achievement Tests were given to the students of the 6th and 8th grades with the 7th grade having California Arithmetic Tests.

March 23 Mystery Farm Owned by Leon Anderson

Leon Anderson is the owner and operator of the "mystery farm" pictured in the March 23 issue of the Hamlin Herald. It was identified by W. T. Johnson.

The 320 acre, partially irrigated, farm is located between Aspermont and Rotan, in Stonewall County, and was purchased from G. A. Helms about 10 years ago.

Mr. Anderson has lived in Stonewall County for 55 years and in addition to the farm pictured he owns 1,765 acres in another part of the county.

Wheat is his favorite crop although he is interested in experiments with the Blue Panic grass, which is fairly new to this part of the country. Most of the cattle the raises are Black Angus. The first Ellenburger will in Stonewall county was on his land and he now has 7 wells.

Married in 1933, the Andersons are members of the Cattle Raisers Association, the Farm Bureau and the Central Baptist Church of Aspermont. Their six children are Lonnie of Kingsville, Texas, Mrs. Don (Wanda) Maxwell of Abilene, Jimmy Gus, Andy Louis, Susan and Ricky of the home.

The Anderson children named their home place "Red Bluff," after the Red Bluff schoolhouse located about a mile from there.

When asked about his plans for the future Mr. Anderson said, "I have lived and worked in this country for 55 years and I'll just keep on doing the same, for as long as I am able."

Jones County 4H Weiner Roast To be Held May 2

The annual weiner roast for Jones County 4-H Club members and their families will be held at the Anson City Park at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday night, May 2, according to county agent Kirby Clayton and County Home Demonstration Agent Mary Y. Newberry.

After the weiner roast at the park, the group will have a skating party at the Anson Roller Rink. Club members from all parts of the county are expected to attend this annual affair.

OLD GLORY NEWS--

By HELEN DIERS

Classes have started working on their projects for the annual Old Glory School Fun Festival to be held Friday night, April 28. The Seniors will sponsor Bingo and have many prizes of value. The juniors will have a Cake Walk. Sophomores are collecting ems for their concession, the rab Box. The Freshmen class will sell food--featuring a ham late supper, pie, coffee, tea, hot dogs and pop. The County Store is sponsored by the eighth grade. Seventh grade has the spinning wheel. Fifth and sixth graders have a bean jar. A bazaar will be sponsored by Mrs. Kitchen's aides, and the first and second graders will sell homemade candy.

The Old Glory School will receive bids on a 1956 model and bus. The bids will be opened at 1:00 p.m., May 15. Four high school students participated in the regional meet at Lubbock on April 22. Peggy Pringle defeated her opponents from Three Way easily to win 1st. Sandy Leverett on 2nd in Senior Boy's Declaration. Helen Diers, ready riting contestant, and Tommy Letz, in number sense, did place. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lump, Mr. V. R. Leverett, and Mary Boles accompanied the group.

The senior boys of Old Glory High School took the American College Tests (ACT) on April 22 at Tom S. High School in Lubbock.

On Saturday, April 22, Joe Cannon entered the District Spelling Bee at Wichita Falls, but did not place. Mrs. V. R. Leverett, Mrs. (Red) Flow, Marilyn Flow, Beverly Garner, Stanley Diers, and Jerry Cannon accompanied him on the trip.

The Old Glory Girl's 4-H Club met in regular session on April 21, with Helen Diers, president, presiding. The motto, pledge, and prayer were led by Stephanie Letz. Sharon Leverett, secretary, read the minutes and called the roll. Song Leaders Donna Pierce and Nancy Vahlenkamp, led some songs and the 3rd and 4th grade girls sang a song. Linda Gholson said her public speaking address that she will give at the District 4-H meet at Wichita Falls. The meeting adjourned.

A training school for 4-H recreation leaders was held on Friday night and Saturday night. A representative of A&M, Agnes Moore taught new songs, games, and square dances. Old Glory participants were: Danny Letz, Mar-

HEALTH DEPARTMENT GIVES ADVISE ON THE USE OF X-RAYS

A 60-year-old grandmother refused her physician's suggestion of a chest x-ray to help diagnose her ailment.

She had heard how x-ray might effect the health of her grandchildren. They were healthy youngsters, she explained, and she wanted to keep them that way. The incident has become a classic example of a disconcerting misconception about radiant energy.

Just for the record, the physician would have thought long and seriously before ordering x-ray if the patient had been an expectant mother. But it could hardly have been dangerous for grandchildren who lived somewhere up north at the time.

Radiant energy is like fire or electricity. Used wisely it can kill or maim. Used with caution it becomes man's servant, bringing him fabulous benefits.

For decades, radiation devices in the hands of skilled persons have been tools of unparalleled importance in medicine and dentistry. X-ray and fluoroscopic machines, properly operated, actually permit a physician or dentist to photograph the interior of the human body. "Aimed" beams of deep-penetrating rays--sometimes pushed by two million volts of electricity--can efficiently treat cancer in practically any body organ.

Within recent years industrial uses of radioactive isotopes--another type of radiant energy--have grown to enormous proportions. More than 400 individuals and firms in Texas are presently registered to use them under State Board of Health rules and regulations. With isotopes oil men can locate underground leaks, and engineers can detect flaws in structural steel or measure the life of cutting tools. The thickness of paper, the fullness of a sealed can, the effectiveness of a washing machine, the wearing quality of floor wax can thus be gauged. These endless advantages are the reason for possible peril. It is simple arithmetic: the more you use anything, the greater is the chance of misuse. But the very fact that danger exists is a sort of safety factor. Persons engaged in peacetime uses of radiation equipment and materials, acutely aware of the chances of a misuse, handle them with extreme caution. Since radiation is increasing, it makes good sense for everyone to be alert. And this much is certain: Unnecessary exposure to radiation--using x-rays to judge Miss Good Posture contests and in personnel monitoring against theft of company property, or fullbody x-ray as part of new baby care--is sheer folly. (A weekly feature of the Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

LOCAL BUSINESS . . .

S. S. Talbert, Ph. D.
Chairman, Dept. of Journalism
University of Mississippi

Advertising has been defined as the art of "getting a unique selling proposition into the heads of the most people at the lowest possible cost."

For the retailer, this means that in some way he must be different from his competition.

The neighborhood grocer can not effectively copy the supermarket in advertising approach. The two-man garage can not compete for auto repair business by making the same claims used by the large dealer-garage.

Smaller firms have some advantages on which to concentrate advertising. For the small retailer the outstanding advantage may be convenience; it may be credit; it may be a quality-price advantage on certain specialties.

Unique advantages may be effectively advertised at comparatively small costs. For if consumers can benefit from the unique conditions, they will see and read an advertisement of any size.

Of course, advertising must be repeated consistently to attain full effectiveness. But the size of each insertion may be governed by the volume of business expected.

In relation to investment and overhead, the small retailer may get more from his advertising dollar than the large company.

But the small retailer can

Farmers Urged To Plant Grasses On Diverted Acres

Farmers participating in the new feed grain program should consider planting grasses or legumes on their diverted acres.

Kirby Clayton, Jones County Agent says that prices of many grasses and legume seeds are below average this year.

Te gave the outlook for seed prices:

The 1961 retail prices on alfalfa and sweet clover seed are below the 1950-59 spring average. This is because of a favorable carryover of clean seed. Sudan grass, on the other hand, is in short supply and can be expected to be as high as higher than price averages are another widely grown for the above period. Cowpeas summer legume and seed are available.

Clayton points out that these soil building and soil conserving crops provide insurance for future production needs.

Farmers can get more detailed information on the 1961 feed grain program from your local county agent or ASC office.

ELECTRIC CO-OP MEMBERS

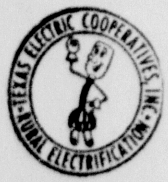

A BILLION DOLLAR APPLIANCE MARKET

The member-owners of the electric cooperatives of the nation represent a fabulous market for electric appliances. Allowing two feet in depth for each refrigerator that will be purchased by electric cooperative members this year the above parade would be 114 miles long.

Measured in the same way, the electric ranges purchased this year by the electric cooperative members would make a parade more than 200 miles long.

Electric cooperative members will spend one billion dollars this year with main street merchants for electric appliances and equipment.

This good business was created by the electric cooperatives. Yes, the electric cooperatives have been good for everybody.

FAIRVIEW NEWS--

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

The attendance at Fairview Church was rather low Sunday, some were sick, some were visiting and with a church of our size every one is missed when they aren't in their places.

We were all very glad Sunday morning to see Mrs. D. M. Harris and her daughter, Mrs. Fay Lyon, walk in to attend church services. It looked like old times again, as Mrs. Harris and her late husband, were members of our church for forty years. Mrs. Harris now resides with her daughter and husband, at Commerce, Texas.

Mrs. E. A. Henry spent several days last week in the Anson General Hospital.

Mrs. Bill Newland spent several days in the Hamlin Hospital last week.

Also on the sick list was little Johnny Combs, who has the chicken pox. The children of the pastor and wife have had chicken pox one at a time, but this is the last, and maybe they can all be back in church now and not have to stay with grandmother and granddaddy on Sunday. Brenda and Cathy were at church Sunday after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford are on a trip to Hill County to visit with friends and relatives and to attend a home coming at Whitney, which is their old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum had as guests the past week end their brother, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Downey and Glenda Ann, Ft. Worth, and they and the Rosenbaums attended the home coming at Neinda, held Sunday, at the community center.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beauchamp and Debra, ate dinner with the H. L. Ford family Sunday.

Fred Rosenbaum and Winson

Gray attended the meeting at Hamlin Thursday night, on the feed and grain program.

While the men attended the farmers meeting Mrs. Rosenbaum and Mrs. Gray visited with Mrs. Johnnie Agnew.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wicker and Suzanne Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray attended the workers conference at the North Central Baptist Church in Hamlin Tuesday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Combs, Cathy and Brenda spent Sunday with the Woodrow Goodwins. Also visiting Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright and Melinda.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wainwright have put siding on their house, giving it a new look.

After weeks of working on it, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner have completed the repairs to their house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dutton and Lillie, visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Greenway. The Duttons, former residents of our community, now live in Anson where Lillie has operated a beauty shop for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray visited with the John Beauchamps Saturday night.

Mrs. Earl Herbst of Hamlin visited with Mrs. J. L. Wilson of Abilene who was a former member of our church before moving to Abilene.

Miss Nancy Ford went to Haskell Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of a former classmate, Beverly Roberson.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner attended council of Home Demonstration Clubs of Jones County, in Anson last Wednesday.

Sunday night concluded the study course in our church, the past four Sunday nights. The book, The Baptist Story, was used and all that attended agreed that it had been a time well spent.

The new coolers were also tried out Sunday and found to be working fine, so when hot weather comes you won't have any excuse to stay home, you can come to church and be comfortable. In fact, some of the ladies threatened to bring a sweater and leave it there and the new paint job inside to wear, so we are all very proud of our cooling system enough people to fill the seat

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

HER HUSBAND CAN'T SAY 'NO'

Dear Amy:

I would like your opinion on this, please. If you go to a dance with your husband and a group of other couples and a man (not in the group) asks your husband's permission to dance with you and your husband says "Sure," but he really doesn't want you to dance with this man, what would you do?

My husband expects me to read his mind and say, "No!" I told my husband if he doesn't want me to dance, to refuse the guy himself! Is it my place to say "No" or my husband's? The guy asked him! When there are other things he doesn't want me to do, he says "No," so why can't he do the same at a dance?

Mrs. D.G.H.

Dear Mrs. D.G.H.:
It's your husband's place to say "No." But if he's chicken, don't let him stew. You make some (graceful) excuse.

Dear Amy:

I am a girl of 15 and I like a boy who is 17. He took me out once and asked me out again, but I said "No" because I was afraid to ask my parents if I could go. It was my first and my only date. Then he asked to come over to my house during the week. This is my problem: I kept telling him that I was doing something else so I guess he got the idea that I didn't like him. I would like to know how to ask my mother if I could ask him over. Please print this letter because I know a lot of other girls who have this same problem.

Gave the Wrong Impression

Dear Wrong Impression:
Never be afraid to ask your parents' permission to invite your friends home (boys or girls). I think it's wrong for parents not to encourage their children to do so. If Mother hasn't given you the okay up till now, ask her!

Dear Amy:

I don't know why my newspaper doesn't print your column every week. I have taken this paper for over 20 years and I like to read your column. What can I do about it?

A Reader of the Christian County Republican

Dear Reader:

Write or telephone your editor. He'll thank you, my publisher thanks you... and I thank you!

Dear Amy:

After reading the letter from

"Being Cheated", I just had to write you. I sent my son to the store with a dollar to buy a half gallon of milk and some candy for his little brothers. He put the milk and the dollar on the counter, and turned around to pick out the candy (opposite the counter). In the meantime a man came in and got a six-pack of beer and paid for it with my son's dollar off the counter and left. My son told the owner what happened and instead of seeing if the man was near the store, he searched all of my son's pockets and didn't find the dollar so he had to believe him. He wrote me a note about what happened and that he lost more than I did so not to expect any change back. My son came home crying. He was heart-broken, not because the man stole his money, but because the owner of the store wouldn't believe him.

Tell all the children to hold on to their money at the store and don't put it on the counter until they are ready to pay for their purchases!

Proud Mother of 4 Sons

Dear Amy:

I hope you can help me. I had been a widow for three years and have married again. We have been married eight months. My husband is good to me and I love him. I have a son (16) and he lived with us for awhile but has left home.

I love my son very much but I can't get him to come back home because my husband said something to hurt him and I don't believe he wants him. What should I do? I love my son better than I do any man. Please help me work this out.

Undecided

Dear Undecided:

Before a woman remarries, the feelings of her prospective husband for her child should be frankly discussed. If you overlooked this important issue, you had better make your feelings known to your husband before the gap between the three of you grows wider. It can be worked out with their cooperation. "Love me, love my child" is an old expression which has yet to be improved upon!

The McCaulley Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, April 20 in the McCaulley Home Economics Building for a program on Civil Defense by James Norman. The program was of great value to all who attended. Films were shown on the bomb dropped in World War II and made us more conscious of radio-active fall out and our need for our own protection. Only a few attended this meeting but we hope to have it again as a community affair. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cates of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen of Slaton spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Burl Potts and family of Kermit were home for a few days this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Potts. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kemp and James visited her mother, Mrs. Avants Sunday.

'GONE WITH THE WIND' OPENS WEEK RUN AT HAMLIN DRIVE IN

When students measure milestones in movie magic, they usually put the "burning of Atlanta" sequence in "Gone With The Wind" at the top of the list.

That thrilling scene, which made movie history, will be seen again in David O. Selznick's memorable production of "Gone With The Wind," presented by Metro-Goldwin-Mayer in tribute to the year of the Civil War Centennial at the Hamlin Drive In for one full week. The fore-runner of today's big-scale epics, the screen version of Margaret Mitchell's enduring novel stars Clark Gable in his never-to-be-forgotten role of Rhett Butler, Vivien Leigh, Leslie Howard and Olivia de Havilland in a giant cast including 59 principal players and thousands of extras.

Atlanta, Georgia, was recreated for the film as it appeared in 1864, when Union General William Tecumseh Sherman first laid siege to the city, then broke through the breastworks during his historic march to the sea. The Atlanta set covered 40 acres. More than 50 buildings were constructed together with 7,000 feet of streets. There were munition warehouses, which were burned by the retreating Confederate soldiers, cotton gins, an arsenal, houses, lumber yards and many other structures.

Tumultuous scenes show the panic-stricken populace fleeing the city, with plunging horses, artillery caissons, ammunition wagons, fire trucks and the assorted vehicles of the civilians all in mad confusion amidst the flames.

For the statistically minded, it took three days to film the sequence by seven Technicolor cameras, following months of preparation. More than 1,000 sketches made from daguerotypes and photographs of the century-ago period were needed before actual work began on the huge set.

Other spectacular scenes in "Gone With The Wind" show the glittering charity ball at Tara, Scarlett's home, which represented the traditional chivalry and beauty of the Old South, the marching armies, the huge plantation sequences, the panorama and pageantry of a nation in a conflict.
